Presents

GNITeMUN

Chapter-III

Ad Astra per Aspera

On

8-9 November 2024

“It is time for a global compromise, the world now needs statesmanship, not gamesmanship and gridlock.” António Guterres (United Nations Secretary-General)

Dear Delegates,

We extend a sincere and enthusiastic welcome to all delegates to our school, as IGNITeMUN Chapter 3 commences promising an exhilarating journey of discovery in global affairs, cross-cultural understanding, and influential decision-making.

November 8-9, 2024 brings together a diverse group of young scholars to tackle pressing issues, facilitate open discussions, and develop solutions. This event reflects the core values of DPS RN Extension, prioritizing the development of globally conscious and responsible individuals.

You, as delegate are not just participants, you are the ambassadors of your schools representing the collective dreams and aspirations of your peers. It is a responsibility that we have no doubt you will shoulder with utmost dedication and grace.

Our faculty and organizing committee have worked tirelessly to ensure that IGNITeMUN is an experience you will cherish. We have curated challenging agendas and stimulating committees that will whet your appetite for lively discussions and intellectual exploration.

This year, we're excited to continue our tradition of including a committee specifically for our younger delegates from classes 4 to 6. This initiative aims to foster critical thinking and creativity in our youngest participants, enriching the overall experience for all.

I'm also pleased to announce our special awards: the Ban Ki-Moon Award for the best overall junior delegate and the U Thant Award for the best overall senior delegate. These awards, a unique feature of our school's MUN, will recognize the overall best delegate in each category, celebrating exceptional contributions and achievements. We're proud to uphold this tradition each year!

In closing, I want to express my gratitude to each one of you for choosing to be a part of IGNITeMUN Chapter 3. I extend my best wishes for your preparations and look forward to the dynamic exchanges and groundbreaking ideas that will emerge over the two days you will be with us.

Once again, welcome to IGNITeMUN! We have set the stage for a truly remarkable experience!

Warm regards,

Pallavi Upadhyaya
Principal
DPS R. N. Extension

"Wars begin in the minds of men, and in those minds love and compassion would have built the defences of peace." – U Thant

Dear Delegates,

On behalf of the IGNITeMUN team, I'm pleased to extend a warm welcome to all delegates representing various nations and political figures at this exceptional and engaging event.

Our team, composed of both students and teachers, has worked diligently to curate engaging and challenging agendas and committees designed to test your diplomatic skills and creativity. This time, we have introduced two historical committees: one focused on the emergency declared by former and late Prime Minister Indira Gandhi in India and the other centered on the formation of the United Nations.

Your research and global knowledge of countries, the perspectives of their leaders, and the nuances of foreign policy will be put to the test. I encourage you to be thorough in your research and come prepared to make IGNITeMUN Chapter 3, the most memorable and enriching experience for everyone involved.

I am looking forward to connecting with all of you for a truly unforgettable and enriching experience.

Warm regards

Lakshmi
IGNITeMUN Convener

“We look forward to the time when the Power of Love will replace the Love of Power. Then will our world know the blessings of peace.”- W. E. Gladstone

Dear Distinguished Delegates,

I hope this message finds you well!

As the Secretary General of IGNITE MUN's third chapter, I want to express my heartfelt gratitude for the incredible opportunity to serve in such a significant role. Reflecting on my experiences with Model United Nations, I recall the early days when I dreamed of being part of IGNITeMUN. Celebrating the success of our previous 2 chapters and also to make this edition a remarkable one once again, we introduce you to our newest committee UNCIO which is based on the history of forming the UNITED NATIONS, a perfect blend of historic and crisis committee. Model United Nations is a platform that gave me the wings to fly high in the sky of diplomacy, deliberations and knowledge. Throughout my time in MUN, I have learned various lessons, not just in diplomacy and international relations, but in life. I believe MUN can enrich the lives of the youth and empower them to be the future leaders of our nation.

We at IGNITeMUN, this year wish to bridge various perspectives with productive conversations and student deliberations to inspire the youth of this nation for a better tomorrow. The common trait among the greatest leaders in history is their ability to inspire others. At IGNITE MUN, we strive to inspire the youth of our nation to become their best selves.

With 10 committees, including the International Press, there are ample opportunities for everyone to shine. I encourage you all to research thoroughly and engage passionately, making your schools proud of your accomplishments.

Remember, the secretariat is here to assist you, so please don't hesitate to reach out if you need any support.

Looking forward to an exciting and enriching event!

Best wishes,

Saumya Shivendra
Secretary General,
IGNITeMUN

"Peace cannot be kept by force; it can only be achieved by understanding." "Peace is not absence of conflict, it is the ability to handle conflict by peaceful means." "To handle yourself, use your head; to handle others, use your heart."

Dear Delegates,

I am grateful for this opportunity to be the Director General of IGNITeMUN Chapter 3. I have always been interested in the worldly affairs and have with great interest studied foreign policies and the dynamics between the nations. This opportunity will definitely give me an in-depth knowledge of the world, the working of the governments and the relationship between nations.

The platform that IGNITeMUN provides to the delegates should be used to foster understanding and bring about solutions to the global problems. I hope that you will use your researching skills and critical thinking skills to make this conference an enriching and a memorable one.

Please remember that the Secretariat is there to attend to all your queries, so feel free to contact us at any time.

Warm regards

Nirbhay Kaushik

COMMITTEE STRUCTURE AND AGENDA

1. UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE ON INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION, 1945-(SAN FRANCISCO CONFERENCE) UNCIO [HISTORICAL] (CLASSES: VIII-XII)

Agenda: Deliberating on the UN's objectives such as maintaining peace and security, promoting cooperation and respecting sovereignty.

The San Francisco Conference, held from April 25 to June 26, 1945, was a crucial moment in the establishment of the United Nations (UN) and the formulation of its foundational objectives. Delegates from 50 nations convened to draft the UN Charter, which aimed to prevent the atrocities of World War II from recurring and to promote global cooperation. Central to the agenda of the conference were key objectives such as maintaining international peace and security, fostering cooperation among nations, and respecting the sovereignty of member states. The delegates recognized that lasting peace could only be achieved through collective action and diplomacy, rather than unilateral military interventions. The conference produced the UN Charter, which emphasizes the importance of dialogue and collaboration in addressing global challenges. It also established various UN organs, including the General Assembly and the Security Council, designed to facilitate cooperation and decision-making among member states.

2. UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY (UNGA CLASSES: VIII-XII):

Agenda: Deliberation on international interference using the digital platform in the democratic setup of countries.

UNITED NATIONS
GENERAL ASSEMBLY

As digital technology continues to advance, the issue of international interference in democratic processes through online platforms has emerged as a critical concern for nations around the globe. This discussion at the upcoming UN General Assembly will focus on the challenges posed by foreign influence, particularly through social media and other digital communication channels. Such interference can take the form of misinformation campaigns, cyberattacks, and efforts to manipulate public opinion, all of which threaten the integrity of electoral processes and democratic institutions.

The criteria to represent P5 country in any of the Committee is a minimum of 4 MUN experience.

3. UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL (UNSC CLASSES: IX-XII):

Agenda: Deliberation on the ongoing conflicts and crises across the world with special focus on the recent escalation of conflict in the Middle East triggered by the Hamas attack on Israel.

The United Nations Security Council (UNSC) is convening to address pressing global conflicts, with a particular focus on the recent escalation in the Middle East triggered by the Hamas attack. This situation has significantly heightened tensions between Israel and Hamas, leading to widespread violence and humanitarian concerns, while also impacting regional stability.

In addition to the immediate conflict, the longstanding rivalry between Israel and Iran exacerbates tensions across the region. Iran's support for militant groups such as Hamas and Hezbollah, combined with its nuclear ambitions, poses significant security challenges for Israel and its allies. This dynamic creates a complex web of conflicts involving various Middle Eastern nations, as countries align themselves based on historical grievances, sectarian divisions, and strategic interests.

The criteria to represent P5 country in any of the Committee is a minimum of 4 MUN experience.

4. UN WOMEN (CLASSES: IX-XII)

Agenda: Examining specific challenges faced by women in armed conflict regions with special focus on the Middle East and advocating for their protection under international law.

As the global community continues to confront the devastating impacts of armed conflict, the issue of women's rights and protection in these regions remains critically important. This session of UN Women will focus on examining the specific challenges faced by women in conflict-affected areas, with a particular emphasis on the Middle East. Women in armed conflict zones often experience heightened vulnerability to violence, including sexual violence, human trafficking, and displacement. The ongoing conflicts in countries such as Syria, Yemen, and Iraq have exacerbated these challenges, leading to significant humanitarian crises that disproportionately affect women and girls. Additionally, cultural and societal norms in these regions can further hinder women's access to essential services, including healthcare, education, and justice. In this context, the agenda will advocate for the protection of women's rights under international law, emphasizing the need for stronger legal frameworks and enforcement mechanisms. Discussions will focus on the implementation of relevant UN resolutions, such as Resolution 1325 on Women, Peace, and Security, which calls for the inclusion of women in peace processes and decision-making.

The criteria to represent P5 country in any of the Committee is a minimum of 4 MUN experience.

5. THE UNITED NATIONS ENVIRONMENT ASSEMBLY-UNEA (CLASSES: VI-VIII)

Agenda: Equitable Climate Financing determining fair contribution for a sustainable future of the world.

The United Nations Environment Assembly (UNEA) addresses the urgent need for equitable climate financing to ensure a sustainable future amid escalating climate change. With the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) warning of the dire consequences of exceeding the 1.5°C temperature rise limit, it's essential to secure fair contributions from all nations. Equitable climate financing involves a just distribution of resources, particularly for developing countries, in line with the principle of "common but differentiated responsibilities." Current challenges include significant funding gaps, inequality in access to financing, and a lack of transparency in fund allocation.

Proposed solutions encompass strengthening global climate funds, exploring innovative financing mechanisms like green bonds, enhancing capacity building for developing nations, and fostering international cooperation. By prioritizing these actions, UNEA can play a critical role in mobilizing the resources necessary to combat climate change and achieve the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

The criteria to represent P5 country in any of the Committee is a minimum of 4 MUN experience.

6. THE UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION ON THE RIGHTS OF THE CHILD-UNCRC (CLASSES: IV-VI)

Agenda: Deliberation on protection of children after any major natural or manmade calamities.

The United Nations Committee on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) addresses the urgent need for effective protection and support for children affected by major natural or man-made disasters. Children are disproportionately impacted by such calamities, facing heightened risks of exploitation, psychological trauma, and disruptions to education and healthcare.

This agenda emphasizes the necessity for robust frameworks to safeguard children during emergencies, including evacuation plans, safe shelter provisions, and mental health support. Additionally, international cooperation is crucial, as effective responses require collaboration among governments, NGOs, and international organizations to ensure children's rights are upheld in disaster contexts. By focusing on these protective measures, the UNCRC aims to enhance strategies that safeguard children's well-being during and after crises, ultimately fostering a safer and more resilient future for all children affected by disasters.

7. UNITED NATIONS HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL UNHRC (CLASSES: IX-XII)

Agenda: Inclusion of forcibly displaced and stateless population within existing national systems with special focus on conflict affected communities and their crucial contribution to society wellbeing.

The United Nations Human Rights Council (UNHRC) is set to address the critical issue of forcibly displaced and stateless populations within existing national systems, particularly focusing on conflict-affected communities. Millions of individuals worldwide are forcibly displaced due to armed conflicts, persecution, and human rights violations, often facing significant barriers to inclusion in society. These populations frequently experience marginalization, lack of access to essential services, and violations of their rights.

This agenda highlights the importance of recognizing the contributions of forcibly displaced individuals to societal well-being, emphasizing their potential in rebuilding communities and fostering social cohesion. It calls for national policies that promote inclusion, equitable access to education, healthcare, and employment, and the protection of human rights. By integrating these populations into national frameworks, the UNHRC aims to enhance resilience and support social harmony, ultimately benefiting both displaced individuals and the communities that host them.

The criteria to represent P5 country in any of the Committee is a minimum of 4 MUN experience.

8. ALL INDIA POLITICAL PARTY MEET AIPPM-BILINGUAL (CLASSES: VIII-XII)

Agenda: Era of Coalition Politics The New & Strengthening of Asymmetrical Federal Structure.

The All India Political Parties Meet (AIPPM) will focus on the dynamics of coalition politics in India, particularly in the context of political parties negotiating power and influence. In an era where coalition governments are increasingly common, parties that help form the government often drive hard bargains to secure key portfolios, policy concessions, and resource allocations. This negotiation process can significantly shape governance and impact the functioning of the asymmetrical federal structure.

The agenda aims to explore the implications of such bargaining on democratic representation, policy coherence, and the effectiveness of governance. As states wield varying degrees of autonomy, the challenge lies in balancing regional interests with national priorities. Discussions will center on how political parties can collaborate effectively while ensuring that the voices of diverse constituencies are heard and respected. The AIPPM seeks to develop strategies for enhancing stability and inclusivity in coalition governance, ultimately strengthening the federal framework in India.

9. EMERGENCY COMMITTEE (1975-77) (CLASSES: IX-XII)

Agenda: Deliberation on imposition of Emergency: Reasons and Aftermath

The Emergency Committee (1975-77) will explore the significant historical event of the imposition of a national emergency in India from June 1975 to March 1977. This period was marked by political turmoil, social unrest, and a suspension of civil liberties. The committee will examine the reasons behind the declaration of emergency, including political instability, economic challenges, and widespread protests against the ruling government.

Discussions will also focus on the aftermath of the emergency, analyzing its impact on democratic institutions, human rights, and civil society. Key issues include the suppression of dissent, censorship of the media, and the effects on political opposition. The committee aims to foster a comprehensive understanding of this critical period in Indian history, encouraging reflection on the balance between state security and individual freedoms. By deliberating on these themes, participants will contribute to discussions on safeguarding democracy and preventing the recurrence of such measures in the future.

10. INTERNATIONAL PRESS (IP)

Delegates of the Model United Nations (MUN) should approach international press coverage with responsibility and integrity. When reporting, ensure accuracy by fact-checking information before publishing. Maintain objectivity and avoid bias in your articles. When photographing, respect individuals' privacy and seek permission when necessary. Prioritize capturing moments that convey the essence of the event. For caricatures, be mindful of cultural sensitivities and avoid offensive portrayals. Use your artistic skills to highlight personalities and issues constructively. In all aspects of journalism, adhere to ethical standards, respect diversity and promote understanding among nations.
